EXANDRIA HONORS 'STONEWALL' JACKSON

Confederate Flags Sold in Streets Raise Money for Statue to Leader in Richmond.

HOSPITAL FUNDS INCREASING

Alexandria, Va., May 1.—"Stonewall" Jackson Day, as proclaimed by Gov. Stuart, was observed in Alexandria today by the sale of several thousand ministure Confederate flags, the pro-ceeds of the sale to be applied to the general fund being raised throughout general fund being raised throughout the State toward the crection of a monument to Gen. Thomas J. ("Stonewall") Jackson in Richmond.

These flags were sold by young women at stores and offices throughout the city. Nearly everybody wore a flag. No fixed price was placed on the flags, and in many instances liberal donations were given by the purchasers. The flags bore the inscription, "Jackson Monument Day, May 1, 1914."

In every city and town in the State the day was observed by the sale of these flags and it is expected a very substantial sum will be realized.

When the cases of two colored men held by the police in connection with the mooting of Leonard Nails, assistant superintendent of the Herbert Bryant's Fertilizer Company, were called in the Police Court today a continuance was granted until tomorrow morning.

Mr. Nalls late last night detected two men getting away from the plant with a roll of roof feiting. He fired to frighten the men, whereupon one of the men fired at him with a shotgun, a load of birdshot entering his right leg. Both men at him with a shotgun, a load of bird-shot entering his right les. Both men then dropped their plunder and ran away. Mr. Nails was taken to his home. 417 South Fairfax street, where he was treated by Dr. S. B. Moore.

The city council will be used of the tribute $5.00 to the building fund of the Alexandria Hospital. This has been decided by the board of trustees of the POTOMAC BALL LEAGUE

A total of nearly $19,000 has now been pledged to the fund, and additional con tributions are being received daily. The committee in charge hopes to raise $50,000 by the close of the present month when the campaign will end. Children attending day schools and Sunday schools are expected to turn in their subscription Sunday.

The body of Asa Jackson Dawson, fifty years old, who died yesterday, was tak-en to Leesburg, Vz., today for burial. His mother and a brother survive him. Mr. Dawson was a member of Alexan-dria Nest of Owls.

George R. McGlue yesterday filed sur for absolute divorce from Annie T. Mc-Glue alleging misconduct. They were married in this city. December 25, 1903 and have two children whose custody is requested by the plaintiff.

The will of Theresa Keefe, dated July 30, 1810, was filed for probate yester-day. After a number of small cash be-quests to friends and relatives the rest of the estate is left to the pastor of St. Joseph's Church. John E. Laskey is smed executor.

Justice Stafford yesterday dismissed the unit of Nina Lemby Cowelli against Harry Stanley Cowsill for a limited divorce, which she brought, alleging cruelty. drunkenness and nonsupport. In his answer defendant denied these charges and said that "for several years past his (defendant's) home has not been made attractive to him and for this reason he has spent many of his eveni elsewhere." They were married Alexandria, June 20, 1996.

The will of Margaret Bellew, dated November 30, 1907, was field for pro-bate resterday. The estate is divided in equal parts between her daughters, Mag-gie J. Topley and Mamie E. Shaw, and Rev. Father Beavans, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, is named Teams of Anacostia and Governmen Hospital for the Insane Cross Bats at 5:30 o'Clock.

A large audience tonight attended the production of "Everystudent" and "The Princess" at the Opera House given by the High School Players. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the hospital building fund.

The 1914 meason of the Potomac Baseball League will open this afternoon on the improved field near the paper oach to the new Eastern Branch bridge at the entrance to Anacostia. The game will be staged between the teams representing Anacostia and the 1914 season of the Potoma Government Hospital for the Insane. The six teams which comprise this circuit have been holding preliminary practice for several weeks. If it is possible fon one of the Washington standing committees had been hard at purchased, 325 were not new and perwork, and as a result some interesting feet, but either were second hand or trial worn.
